

Goals of the Society of Juridical and Administrative Sciences

---

- increasing the visibility of higher education and research in the legal and administrative sciences;
- provide a scientific support for justice and public administration reform;
- contribute to the initiation and improvement of regulatory projects in the legal and administrative sciences;
- ensuring an internationally competitive level of scientific research in legal and administrative sciences;
- development of the excellence in scientific research in legal and administrative sciences;
- organizing of symposia, conferences, workshops, roundtables, debates, seminars, congresses and creative circles in order to promote the cultural, scientific and educational values in the legal and administrative sciences;
- organizing of fairs and exhibitions to promote cultural, scientific and educational products / activities / services in the socio-economic environment;
- editing, printing, publishing and distribution of books, journals, newspapers, brochures, flyers and other publications for cultural, educational, scientific purpose; material support for editing of newspapers, journals and books;
- organizing of book launches, promotion of books and journals;
- promoting of cultural, scientific and civilization values in the legal and administrative field by developing of the partnerships with public and private entities, involving cultural and scientific personalities and representatives of socio-economic environment.
- organizing and coordination of attracting human, financial and materials resources for the promotion and preservation of scientific, educational and cultural values and registration in the international circuit;
- discovery, training and promotion of young researchers in the field of legal and administrative sciences.
- promoting of the multidisciplinary and compared scientific research ;
- promoting in the social environment of the scientific research results in the field of the legal and administrative sciences
- supporting of the scientific, educational and cultural exchanges with public or private entities from various countries.
- encouraging and promoting of the excellence in science and education by granting of scholarships, awards, honors and grants;
- coordination and participation in projects and national and international grants;
- conducting of consulting activities in the legal and administrative sciences;
- establishment and / or participation in the organization of libraries, centers / institutes for education and research;
- conducting in collaboration with law and administrative higher education institutions of the basic and applied research;

- organizing of training and qualifications courses for public officials and other stakeholders in the legal and administrative sciences;
- supporting the European integration through intercultural, scientific and educational exchanges.