This volume contains the scientific papers presented at the Sixth International Conference „Perspectives of Business Law in the Third Millennium” that was held on 25-26 November 2016 at Bucharest University of Economic Studies, Romania. The conference is organized each year by the Department of Law at Bucharest University of Economic Studies together with the Society of Juridical and Administrative Sciences. More information about the conference can be found on the official website: www.businesslawconference.ro.

The scientific studies included in this volume are grouped into two chapters:

- Contemporary challenges in the regulation of international business law. The papers in this chapter refer to the evolution and challenges of directors' duty of loyalty, the administrative contracts in the European Union law, the improvement of legal framework of the limited liability company provided by international uniform law, the international air transport of passengers and luggage from tourist industry perspective and the rights of tourists and considerations regarding the competence of the European Union external trade policy.
- Contemporary challenges in the regulation of national business law. This chapter includes papers on: new elements in the regulation of competition in Romania; the complexity of the litigations in the energy regulated field of activity and the necessity of the specialization of the judge panels; on the de facto director of a Romanian limited liability company; some aspects concerning the setting up of companies regulated in Romania by the Law no. 31/1990 republished; excise duties in European Union and relevant national case-law; the lease contract under insolvency law; considerations regarding the contract assignment in the Romanian Civil Code; consultation between social partners.

This volume is aimed at practitioners, researchers, students and PhD candidates in juridical sciences, who are interested in recent developments and prospects for development in the field of business law at international and national level.

We thank all contributors and partners, and are confident that this volume will meet the needs for growing documentation and information of readers in the context of globalization and the rise of dynamic elements in contemporary business law.
