

Sporazum o priznanju krivice:
komparativna analiza i analiza u crnogorskom krivičnom zakonodavstvu i praksi

Plea Agreements: A Comparative Analysis and an Analysis within Montenegrin Criminal Legislation and Practice

Biography
Dženana MRVALJEVIĆ, PhD
Attorney-at-law
Podgorica, Montenegro
dzenanamrvaljevic@gmail.com
ORCID:0000-0003-4777-2502

Mevludina Dženana Mrvaljević is a lawyer and holds a PhD in criminal procedure law. She specialises in criminal law and criminal procedure. She graduated from the Faculty of Law of the University of Montenegro, where she also participated in the prestigious international arbitration competition Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot, held in Vienna.

She completed her Master's studies in criminal law at the Faculty of Law of the University Mediterranean, where she defended her master's thesis entitled Regular Determination of Imprisonment Sentences. She earned her PhD with a doctoral dissertation examining the theoretical foundations, comparative models and practical application of the plea bargaining institute.

She is the author of numerous scientific and professional papers in the field of criminal law and criminal procedure law, with particular emphasis on plea bargaining, sentencing policy and contemporary criminal justice challenges, and has participated in numerous national and international scientific and professional conferences.

She is engaged as a teaching associate at the Faculty of Law of the University Mediterranean, within the criminal law group of subjects. In addition, she has obtained both the bar exam and the judicial exam and has been practising as an attorney-at-law since 2020, with a primary professional focus on criminal law and criminal defence practice.