

The AJURIS Template for Electronic Books

I. Themes

We publish treatises, monographs, courses, theses, and essays in English or French. These are selected based on the contribution they can make to the European and international doctrinal debate concerning issues in social sciences and transdisciplinarity. ADJURIS – International Academic Publisher encourages the publication of manuscripts with international relevance, which present comparative research, promote interdisciplinarity in the social sciences, combine theoretical and empirical analysis through case studies, and benefit from a solid bibliographic foundation.

II. The Structure of the Manuscript

First page:

Author(s). The first and last names of the author(s) should be written in Times New Roman 12, aligned to the right, in bold, preceded by academic rank and scientific title (if applicable). The family name should be written in capital letters. The name should be followed by an indication of the main institutional affiliation (for each author separately, if applicable) and email address, written in Times New Roman 12, bold, italic. Each author must provide their ORCID number.

Title of the Book. The title should be written in capital letters, Times New Roman 14, bold, centred.

Second page:

Presentation of Author(s). Please provide a brief description of studies, activities, publications, awards, and prizes.

Third page:

The Book Presentation. The book presentation must be 150-200 words and written in Times New Roman 12, italic, justified. It should include:

- The objectives of the study,
- The research methods used,
- The results and implications of the study.
- Target audience

Keywords. Provide 4-6 keywords that capture the essence of the book, written in Times New Roman 12, italic, justified.

JEL Classification. After the keywords, please indicate the classification of the book in one or more categories in the JEL Classification .

Table of Contents

The manuscript will be divided into chapters, subchapters, sections, etc., depending on the complexity of the issues treated. Structural divisions of the book will be listed in the Table of Contents, indicating the number of pages.

Text of the Manuscript. The text will be written in Times New Roman 12, justified, single-line spacing.

Footnotes. The footnotes should use Times New Roman 9, justified, single-line spacing. The footnotes will start with No. 1 on each page. All quoted works and jurisprudence should be mentioned only in footnotes. The citations will be made according to The Chicago Manual of Style, in full format, not shortened notes. In the case of jurisprudence, the document's name has to be mentioned, along with its number, the date of ruling/issuance, the issuing authority (court), and the publication where it is included (the Official Gazette, case law reports, etc.).

Bibliography. A bibliographic list of the works used must be inserted at the end of the book. The list must include all doctrinal sources (books, articles) found in the footnotes throughout the article. The bibliographic list cannot include other doctrinal sources than those used in the article and found in the footnotes. The indication of the works in the bibliographic list will be done according to The Chicago Manual of Style. The titles of the works in the bibliographic list will be indicated in the language in which they were published and translated into English in square brackets [].

III. Page Layout

The book has to be written in Word, using A4 format (margins: top/bottom/left/right – 2 cm). The pages will be numbered with Arabic numerals, continuously, from the first to the last page.

IV. Mailing Address

Manuscripts will be sent in electronic format to: office@adjuris.ro